Home; Asus ZenFone Max Pro (M1) ZB601KL /ZB602KL.County of Caithness The County of Caithness was an administrative county in northern Scotland from 1296 to 1975. Early history The Kingdom of Scotland was created in the 11th century. In 1296, the king created a new county in northern Scotland, north of the old counties of Dunbar and Caithness. The south of Caithness is now the Highland Council area. In 1800 the county was merged into Caithness-Sutherland by the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1842. In 1975 the non-metropolitan counties of Caithness and Sutherland were merged into Highland Region, which was subsequently abolished by the Local Government etc. (Scotland) Act 1994, with the county then being split between Highland and Moray, as well as the latter being split into the unitary councils of Aberdeenshire and Angus, and Moray. Other counties of Scotland, that were earlier counties of the Kingdom of Scotland, including those of Berwick, Elginshire and Ross, were of course not united with Caithness in the 1296 creation of the new county of Caith
